3. Interpretation

- a. Words and expressions used and not defined in these regulations but defined in the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992), the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956), the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996) or the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013) and rules and regulations made thereunder shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in those legislation. This Code can be modified/amended/alterd only by Board of Directors of the Company.
- b. But in case of any statutory modification or amendment or alteration of the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading), Regulations 2015, the newly modified/amended/alterd provisions of the Regulation shall be deemed to be implemented in the Code immediately with effect from the date of the statutory notification for modification or amendment or alteration etc.
- c. The amended code should be placed before the Board of Directors of the Company in the Board Meeting held immediately after the date of statutory notification for modification/amendment/alteration etc of the Regulation for noting.

4. Role of Compliance Officer

- a. The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors on annual basis.
- b. The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company’s Code of Conduct.

5. Preservation of confidentiality of UPSI / Confidential Information

- (i) All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Explanation: For the purpose of above Clause, legitimate purpose shall mean sharing of information by the Company with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants in its ordinary course of business.

- (ii) The Company shall however, in no circumstances share information solely for the purpose of evading the compliances of the Regulations or circumventing the prohibitions of these Regulations.
- (iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-
 - a. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company;
 - b. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of director's may determine.
 - c. However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information
 - d. Need to Know:
 - (i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
 - (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

(iv) Confidential Information / UPSI shall be kept with adequate security.

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

(v) Digital database of information

The board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom UPSI is shared along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

6. Prevention of Misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”:

- a. Designated employees designated on the basis of their functional role in the Company (and their immediate relatives) shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing trading in securities.
- b. No insider shall trade in securities of the Company on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

7. Trading Plan

- a. An insider shall be entitled, at his option, to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out with such plan.
- b. Such trading plan shall:
 - i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- c. The Compliance Officer shall review such trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- d. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.
- e. However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, any UPSI in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information.
- f. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8. Trading Window and Window Closure

- a. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

- b. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading window", is available for trading in the Company's securities.
- c. The trading window can be, inter alia, closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after declaration of financial results. Trading Window for events other than financial results, shall be closed for the period as may be determined by the Compliance Officer of the Company from time to time. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- d. During closure of trading window, Designated Persons (and their immediate relatives) shall not trade in the securities of the Company.
- e. All Designated Persons (and their immediate relatives) shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- f. Sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading is closed.
- g. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

9. Pre-clearance of trades

- a. When the trading window is open, any Designated Person (and/or their immediate relative) shall trade in Securities of the Company subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer if the value of the proposed trades is above 50,000 shares or up to Rs. 20 Lakhs (market value) or 1% of total shareholding, whichever is less, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no Designated Person shall be entitled for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even if the trading window is not closed.
- b. Designated Person (and/or their immediate relative Specified Person) who proposes to execute trade in Securities of the Company shall submit an application duly filled and signed to the Compliance Officer. The format of application is annexed as "Annexure A". It is clarified that the designated person should submit the application on behalf of his/her immediate relative(s), for trades proposed to be executed by the immediate relative(s).
- c. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any UPSI. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- d. The Compliance Officer shall approve / reject pre-clearance application within four days in the form set out in "Annexure B".
- e. Designated Person shall execute pre-cleared trade within seven trading days from approval and shall report his trade details to Compliance Officer in the form set out in "Annexure C" within 2 trading days from the trade. In case non-trading, Designated Person shall report his decision of non-trading along with reasons to Compliance Officer in the form set out in "Annexure C".

- f. In case of failure in executing trade within seven trading days, Designated Person shall be required to take fresh pre-clearance for the trades to be executed in the form set out in “Annexure A”.
- g. Designated Person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade within next six months from previous transaction. The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing without violating the Regulations. If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund.
